Assessment Review Board Members Needed!

The Town of Vegreville is now recruiting up to two public members to serve on its Assessment Review Board (ARB)—a vital, impartial body that hears complaints about property assessments. If you're passionate about fairness and want to make a meaningful contribution to your community, we want to hear from you!

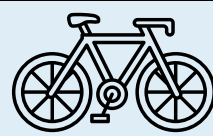

This is a part-time, as-needed position with training provided and $200/day compensation. Hearings typically occur between September and December, with flexibility for daytime availability. Help ensure transparency and accountability in our local assessment process—apply today!

Please complete the Committee & Board Application Form. All applications and resumes can be submitted to vegtown@vegreville.com
