Elections are taking place this October! Be sure you register to vote at voterlink.ab.ca

Board Members Needed!

Assessment Review Board

The Town of Vegreville is now recruiting up to two public members to serve on its Assessment Review Board (ARB)—a vital, impartial body that hears complaints about property assessments. If you're passionate about fairness and want to make a meaningful contribution to your community, we want to hear from you!

This is a part-time, as-needed position with training provided and $200/day compensation. Hearings typically occur between September and December, with flexibility for daytime availability. Help ensure transparency and accountability in our local assessment process—apply today!

Subdivision & Development Appeal Board

The SDAB hears appeals on development decisions made by the Town of Vegreville. Hearings are similar to court proceedings, and decisions are based on evidence and relevant legislation.

We're looking for three fair, ethical individuals with strong communication, reasoning, and decision-making skills. Familiarity with local developments and planning documents is an asset. Municipal staff and Development Authority members may not apply.

SDAB Member requirements:

- Meets as needed
- Mandatory training provided
- A personal history of acting ethically and with integrity
- Able to participate with an open mind and make fair, unbiased decisions

Please complete the Committee & Board Application Form. All applications and resumes can be submitted to vegtown@vegreville.com

HELP US STOP VANDALISM IN OUR COMMUNITY!

We need your help to put an end to vandalism in our community. Vandalism not only costs taxpayers' money for ongoing repairs, but it also creates a dangerous environment in our public parks and spaces. Shattered glass and jagged edges from destroyed property are putting the public, including children, at risk.

If you witness vandalism in the act or notice anything suspicious, please call either the Town of Vegreville's 24-hour Municipal Enforcement Line 587-790-1294 or 9-1-1 and report it immediately. The Town of Vegreville is committed to prosecuting offenders to the fullest extent of the law.

Let's work together to keep our community safe and beautiful!
